

SPIRIT OF EASTVIEW

Though marred by occasional technical problems, Eastview's radio programme, "The Spirit of Eastview", was a fascinating experience. Gus Richardson, Richard Partridge and Ruth Urquhart spent thirty minutes every Thursday at 8:00 p.m. on C.K.B.B. Radio.

Each reported on various activities within the school. In addition, special features, such as Righteous Ruth, helped to make it entertaining as well.

Though perhaps not a highlight, the evening that C.K.B.B. went off the air was a very hectic one. The end result was a fifty-five minute programme--the longest on record.

The success of the show was due in no small part to Brian Henderson who proved to be very helpful.
